Gary Arndt is a world traveler and a member of G Adventures' Wanderers in Residence program. He has been traveling the world non-stop since 2007 and has visited over 100 countries and all 7 continents. He is also one of the Internet's most popular travel bloggers and travel photographers. He was named one of the Top 25 Blogs on the Internet by Time magazine in 2010 and is also a Lowell Thomas Award winning travel journalist.

ANTARCTICA

In January 2012 I embarked on G Adventures' MS Expedition for an 18-day tour of the Falkland Islands, South Georgia Island and Antarctica. The tour, called the "Spirit of Shackleton", visited several spots which were part of Sir Ernest Shackleton's 1921 expedition to Antarctica. Visiting Antarctica had been a goal of mine since I was a child. I grew up looking at photos of penguins and ice in my father's National Geographic magazines. Being able to experience South Georgia and the Falklands made the adventure a once in a lifetime event. I hope you get as much joy viewing my photos as I did taking them.
