

3° A group 2

- Once upon a time there were seven lions and tigers. One morning they decided to go for a stroll while their milk and biscuits cooled down. After they left, a girl named Sophia entered their house. First she ate their breakfast and said, "too strong." Then she sat down on their intelligent sword and said, "too beautiful." Finally she laid down on the lazy gun and said, "this is crazy." She fell asleep. The animals returned and noticed that someone had eaten their breakfast. Suddenly she woke up, screamed "go!!" and ran from the house.

3° A group 3

- Once upon a time there were two dragons. One morning they decided to go for a stroll while their eggs cooled down. After they left, a girl named Helen entered their house. First she ate their breakfast and said, "too beautiful." Then she sat down on their happy sword and said, "too big." Finally she laid down on they ancient shield and said, "this is magic." She fell asleep. The animals returned and noticed that someone had eaten their breakfast. Suddenly she woke up, screamed "fly!" and ran from the house.

3° A group 5

- Once upon a time there were five cats. One morning they decided to go for a stroll while their pancakes cooled down. After they left, a girl named Lucy entered their house. First she ate their breakfast and said, "too strange." Then she sat down on their friendly tree and said, "too old." Finally she laid down on they tall house and said, "this is beautiful." She fell asleep. The animals returned and noticed that someone had eaten their breakfast. Suddenly she woke up, screamed "run!" and ran from the house.

3° A group 1

- Once upon a time there were six cats. One morning they decided to go for a stroll while their milk cooled down. After they left, a girl named Laureen entered their house. First she ate their breakfast and said, "too angry." Then she sat down on their beautiful house and said, "too big." Finally she laid down on the warm kitchen and said, "this is amazing." She fell asleep. The animals returned and noticed that someone had eaten their breakfast. Suddenly she woke up, screamed "cook!" and ran from the house.

3° A group 6

- Once upon a time there were four unicorns. One morning they decided to go for a stroll while their milk and cookies cooled down. After they left, a girl named Georgia entered their house. First she ate their breakfast and said, "too funny." Then she sat down on their happy castle and said, "too lazy." Finally she laid down on they intelligent door and said, "this is small." She fell asleep. The animals returned and noticed that someone had eaten their breakfast. Suddenly she woke up, screamed "play!" and ran from the house.

3° A group 4

- Once upon a time there were ten dogs. One morning they decided to go for a stroll while their eggs and bacon cooled down. After they left, a girl named Emily entered their house. First she ate their breakfast and said, "too lazy." Then she sat down on their intelligent book and said, "too big." Finally she laid down on their fantastic bank and said, "this is small." She fell asleep. The animals returned and noticed that someone had eaten their breakfast. Suddenly she woke up, screamed "eat frogs!" and ran from the house.